Predictions for 2015 By Andrew Aloha

2015 will actually be an extension of 2014. That is to say, the threats and rebellions will co-exist side-by-side throughout the world with huge mountains being moved because of it. This also means possible huge miracles will take place as well. In 2013, I predicted that the commencement of World War III (WWIII) could begin in July 2014. Although, it is still undetermined as I am writing this prediction, by the time this article comes out it could very well be a different story. I personally don't support or approve of all this, though that's the way the energies on this planet are moving due to at least two planets.

The two planets that are key to the threat of WWIII in our near future are Pluto and Uranus. At least a year prior to the event, I predicted there would be a huge financial shift in January 2008 when Pluto, which keep in mind is NOT a planet, went into Capricorn. That's exactly what happened. Now, that same energy of transforming and transcending leadership, money, politics, technology, emergency and prison systems will continue until at least 24 March 2023, with the middle of this process being from July 2015 thru January 2016. Likewise, there will be an additional push for this in March of 2015. Which means these energies will continue to be even more intense in this way until after January 2016, when things will begin to calm down little by little until 2023.

In 2025, we will officially have entered the "Golden Age" and be completely in the "Age of Aquarius", which means everything on this planet will probably be amazing and awesome, and we will probably experience peace here on Earth like it has not been felt since the 1800's. Wow, what a life that will be.

Additionally, Prema Sai Baba, the third incarnation of Satya Sai Baba who is considered a Cosmic Avatar or Christ, with the first incarnation being Shirdi Baba, will probably have been born in 2024. Later, when he gets older, he will take up his position on the stage for some more amazing miracles to take place as well. Likewise, forget not “The Day of Declaration”, “The Day of Reckoning” or whatever you want to call it, will have taken place by then.....it is a God/dess probability this will take place next year or 2016, when Maitreya Buddha will take the stage for some more amazing events such as “First Contact”, major healings and more. Holy Cow Batman! What will happen then!

Just the same, getting back to Pluto being in Capricorn, Capricorn is influenced or governed by what Alice Bailey calls the 5th & 1st Ray energies, or the energies of Will & Power, and Science & Technology. Which means that for the next approximate year and a half there will be a big push to transform & transcend leadership, politics, science, technology, emergency systems, prisons and banking into new heights, new dimensions, and possibly into a whole new way of life here on Earth. Again, this also means the possibility for great miracles and/or movements to take place as a result of all this.....time will tell.

Next, the planet Uranus has been a key player in the uprising of new leaders since 29 May 2010, when it went into Aries, which is governed by the 1st ray energy of Will and Power. Uranus, which is the planet of Freedom & Rebellion, has been very busy, actively throwing out leaders of the past or from the Age of Pisces, as well as those that simply are not leading in right healthy ways. The middle of this energy was May 2014 which is exactly when the eminent threat of WWII began when Russian President Vladimir Putin literally announced this possible outcome. This will escalate again in March 2015 when Uranus goes back into its height again. This will then lead to the major transformation, transcendence and miracles of Pluto in Capricorn thereafter, particularly from July 2015 thru January 2016. Additionally, the energy of Uranus in Aries will begin to calm down thereafter and eventually fade out on 7 March 2019 when it goes into Taurus then.

With all this in mind, it is important that people be conscious of this eminent threat and do whatever they can to help circumvent or overcome all of it with grace and ease. There are numerous things that can be done to help make this an era of miracles and moving mountains in the right direction, rather than be just being another statistic. Among the many things that can be done are quite simple which include prayers, voting in the right leaders, meditation, feng shui, being kind to each other, playing healing music all the time, being of service in various healthy ways, and whatever else you can think of that will help. Even several thousand people asking that the planets Pluto and Uranus be healed and be filled with Light & Love could help by Quantum Leaps. You just may never know until you try..... and don't think your efforts will be overlooked either.

There are also four other planets that will come into play within the next year and a half that will help make life happen. First of all, Neptune went into Pisces on 4 February 2012, which a lot of you may have felt. For those of you that did you may have begun to feel more creative with spiritual or religious endeavors, with hospitals, with psychic or paranormal experiences and anything else that has to do with the sign of Pisces. In fact, for the next several years the amount of creative exploration with the paranormal, religion, hospitals and more will probably be astounding, even breath taking.....again, time will tell.

Another significant occurrence that will take place on 24 December 2014 will be Saturn going into Sagittarius. This will actually be an interesting occurrence because it will be on Christmas Eve and many people will be affected by this. Saturn will be in Sagittarius until 21 December 2017, with the middle of this energy being February thru June 2016, which means that there will be some shifting around concerning travel, business, medical systems, massage, comedy, and even timing or time travel. A lot of attention will be given to these areas in terms of abusiveness, safety and/or making them better, along with simply facing fears of expanding them or otherwise.....we'll see.....:)

Likewise, Jupiter (the planet of healing) and the North Node (the destiny planet) will also come into play in 2015. Jupiter went into Leo on 17 July 2014, with the middle of that energy being the last week in September 2014. Then, it will go into its height again from January thru May 2015, thereby promoting a lot of healing for singers, the entertainment industry, children and children's education programs until 12 August 2015, when Jupiter goes into Virgo. When that happens, accountants, writers, editors, voice coaches and others influenced by Virgo, such as myself, will go through healing until 10 September 2016, with the middle of that energy being February and June 2016 when they will receive the most healing.

Finally, the North Node which has been in Libra since 19 February 2014, affecting the destinies of teachers, law enforcement and counselors, will go into Virgo on 13 November 2015, thereby affecting the destinies of accountants, writers, editors, voice coaches and others influenced by Virgo. The middle of the North Node in Libra will be at the end of December 2014 thru the beginning of January 2015 when it will have its most influence on these people. The middle of the North Node in Virgo will be in the latter part of June 2016, with that energy ending on 10 May 2017, again influencing those populace influenced by Virgo.....:)
